

U.S. SAND SCULPTING CHALLENGE & dimensional art exposition

Port of San Diego U.S. Sand Sculpting Challenge Transforms Sand Sculptures to Life

San Diego, CA. (July 15, 2018) – Comic Con isn't the only time creatures and characters come to life in San Diego! World Master Sand Sculptors from all over the world will assemble in San Diego at the U.S. Sand Sculpting Challenge on Labor Day weekend August 31 – September 3 to create extraordinary sculptures made only from sand and water... now THAT'S a super power! These hand-made sculptures can reach up to 15 ft. tall and can weigh over 10,000 lbs. on this built-for-the-occasion beach, with over 300 tons of sand dumped on Broadway Pier. It's been called the most creative atmosphere in the world and you'll never see works of art like this anywhere else!

The U.S. Sand Sculpting Challenge has announced extended hours and will be open at night for all to enjoy. NEW this year, sculptures will "light the night" and be decoratively lit from top to bottom inside the Port Pavilion. New hours are Fri. 5-9pm; Sat. and Sun. 10am-9pm and Mon. 10-7.

Don't forget about the best deal at the event, the VIP tickets. Benefits include admission for up to 4 days for just one price, entry to shaded V.I.P. area, 2 free beverages on one day only (alcoholic or non-alcoholic). And for the first 200 V.I.P. ticket holders only: 1 free meal (Charburger, fries and drink) at Habit Burger Grill food truck at event.
